The 3rd Czech and Slovak Film Festival of Australia (CaSFFA) wraps up on a triumphant note in Melbourne

3000 patrons attended the 3rd CaSFFA!

A big thank you to our naming rights sponsor Richmond Škoda, festival guest Pavel Kohout and all of our wonderful supporters

"The Czech and Slovak Film Festival, for me, has become the go-to film festival... The main [reason for this is], where most film festivals seem to follow a very prescriptive, formulaic program... the Czech and Slovak Film Festival has the feel of the personal. I think they're subtly curated and they're quite eccentric and particular to the culture. They feel quite culturally specific and special. The way that festivals should be."

- Nick Matteo, Film Buff's Forecast, Triple R 102.7FM

Melbourne, Tuesday 6 October 2015 - It's just over a week since the 3rd CaSFFA wrapped up and we are already reassembling as a team to plan and scheme our return in 2016. However, before we get super busy, the all-volunteer team of CaSFFA would like to officially declare this year's festival a most prosperous one, and to recap this year's highlights with you...

Our final event for 2015 was of course our Closing Night on Friday 25 September. Patrons received a heavenly Becherovka shot ahead of the screening of the fascinating The Magic Voice of a Rebel (Magický hlas rebelky). Introducing the film were festival guests Mrs. Anna Petrášová from the Embassy of the Slovak Republic in Canberra, and Max Walker on behalf of our fabulous Naming Rights Sponsors Richmond Škoda.

(Speaking of Richmond Škoda, providers of our fabulous festival Fabia this year... you'll find a special offer just below!)

Afterwards, the festivities continued downstairs in the ACMI Lightwell, where patrons enjoyed more drinks along with gourmet nibbles, while majestic musical trio Vardos kept the celebratory vibes flowing until the midnight hour, delighting all and sundry with their interpretations of Marta Kubišová classics and a rich array of Eastern European melodies.

On Sunday 20 September, audiences flocked to the family-friendly screenings of Three Brothers (Tři bratři) and When the Cat Comes (Až přijde kocour), while larger crowds still turned out for each installment of the Karel Zeman retrospective that screened on Wednesdays 16 and 23 in partnership with the Melbourne Cinémathèque and the Karel Zeman Museum in Prague.

In between screenings, 340 festival-goers were able to enjoy the excellent Spirit of Adventure exhibition in ACMI's Australian Mediatheque and surrounds, as curated by Carmen Reid and inspired by Karel Zeman's retro-futurist oeuvre. Artworks were supplied by a group of super-talented and generous local artists.

At the Melbourne Town Hall on Thursday 24 September, world-renowned Czech organist Pavel Kohout, flanked by narrator Pete Reid and foley artists Tonja Mlinar Min, Corey Murdoch and Dave Temme, played an original live score for the very rare 1919 silent horror film The Cathedral Builder (Stavitel chrámu) to an enthralled audience of 550 viewers - a new CaSFFA record! This truly wonderful performance could not have taken place without the staunch support of the City of Melbourne and the National Film Archive in Prague.

There are many more fabulous pictures from this wonderful event, and from our fabulous Opening and Closing Night extravaganzas, accessible on the Gallery page on the CaSFFA website - enjoy!

And... lest we forget! - it is thanks to your ongoing support and interest that we have been able to make CaSFFA happen once again this year. We cannot thank you enough for your contribution towards our festival, and here's throwing an especially warm welcome to our new CaSFFANs!

But Enough About Us...

Now for a Little Bit about You!

A whopping 49.4% of you submitted surveys to us! From your kind (and overwhelmingly positive) feedback, we have learnt that you are...
